1. Introduction

This document provides the main principles of impartiality of BFAR-Regional Fisheries Laboratory XII according to the requirements of the clause 4.1 of PNS ISO/IEC 17025:2017 standard.

The management of BFAR-RFL XII is fully committed to impartiality, independence and integrity. In this respect:

- All personnel abides with RA 6713 or the Code of Conduct and Ethical Standards for Public Officials and Employees and BFAR Core Values.
- All necessary resources for the operation of the laboratories are requested from and provided by the Department of Agriculture-Bureau of Fisheries & Aquatic Resources.
- The QMS procedures assure transparency, independence, impartiality and integrity.
- The payments of personnel are independent of the volume of analysis and/or the amount of income from services.
- The personnel are free and independent of any kind of pressure and are responsible to provide full evidence of service work.
- The personnel are fully responsible for keeping confidentiality.

The laboratory identifies risks to its impartiality on an on-going basis. This includes those risks that arise from activities, or from its relationships, or from the relationships of its personnel. However, such relationships do not necessarily present a laboratory with risk to impartiality.

If a risk to impartiality is identified, the laboratory is able to demonstrate how it eliminates or minimizes such risk.
