1. Introduction

This document provides the main principles of confidentiality of BFAR-Regional Fisheries Laboratory XII according to the requirements of the clause 4.2 of PNS ISO/IEC 17025:2017 standard.

BFAR - RFL XII is responsible, through legally enforceable commitments, for the management of all information obtained or created during the performance of laboratory activities. The laboratory informs the customer in advance, of the information it intends to place in public domain. Except for information that the customer makes publicly available, or when agreed between the laboratory and the customer (e.g for the purpose of responding to complaints), all other information is considered proprietary information and is regarded as confidential.

When the laboratory is required by law or authorized by contractual arrangements to release confidential information, the customer or individual concerned, unless prohibited by law, be notified of the information provided.

Information about the customer obtained from sources other than the customer (e.g. complainant, regulators) are confidential between the customer and the laboratory and cannot be shared with the customer, unless agreed by the source.

Personnel, including any committee members, contractors, personnel of external bodies, or individuals acting on the laboratory's behalf, keep confidential all information obtained or created during the performance of laboratory activities, except as required by law.
