Introduction

This document provides the principles for handling issues related to the selection, training, competence monitoring, responsibilities and authorizations of the personnel according to the requirements of the par.6.2 of the PNS ISO/IEC 17025:2017 standard.

All personnel of the laboratory, either internal or external, that could influence the laboratory activities acts impartially, competent and work in accordance with the laboratory's management system.

The laboratory has documented the competence requirements for each function influencing the results of laboratory activities, including requirements for education, qualification, training, technical knowledge, skills and experience.

The laboratory ensures that the personnel have the competence to perform laboratory activities for which they are responsible and to evaluate the significance of deviations.

The management of the laboratory communicates to personnel their duties, responsibilities and authorities.

The laboratory has procedures and retains records for:

- a) determining the competence requirements;
- b) selection of personnel;
- c) training of personnel;
- d) supervision of personnel;
- e) authorization of personnel;
- f) monitoring and competence of personnel.

1. Selection, Responsibilities and Authorities of Personnel

Recruitment of new personnel is carried out according to the legal framework applied to BFAR-RFL XII. In any case, a new personnel is recruited according to specified qualifications to meet the needs of the operation based on the requirements of the quality management system and to satisfy the technical competence needed.

The responsibilities, the authorizations, the tasks and their range and limits are fully described and specified within the procedures of the quality management system. In addition, the basic
