Document Code: SOP-06	REVIEW OF REQUESTS, TENDERS AND CONTRACTS

Introduction

This Standard Operating Procedure describes the necessary actions and tasks for the provision of testing services according to requirements of sub clause 7.1 of the PNS ISO/IEC 17025:2017 standard.

This applies to all requests received from customers of the BFAR RFL XII including possible cases of amendments in the previously agreed upon terms and conditions.

1. Responsibilities

1. The Customer Service Officer, in coordination with the technical staff shall be responsible for the implementation of this procedure.
2. Technical Manager
3. The Quality Assurance Manager shall ensure that the objective of the procedure is achieved.

2. Handling Customers' Requests

2.1. Requests for testing services:

Samples are evaluated by the Customer Service Officer under the coordination of the Technical Manager if the technical requirements are met. Technical review takes place by the use of the List of Analyses and Fees (LF 06-01), which provides the technical testing capabilities of each Laboratory in terms of:

- Test method
- Detection limit
- Sample requirements
- Turn-around time
- Fees

2.2. The LF 06-02, Request for Laboratory Analysis which contains all the necessary information about the sample and analysis requested based on the BFAR RFL XII services offered, serves as the contract between the laboratory and the customer. The confirmation of the customer will serve as the acceptance of the sample for analysis.

2.3 The RLA (found in LF 06-02, Request for Laboratory Analysis) and samples are received and laboratory code is assigned by the Customer Service Officer. Laboratory code will follow the format:

RFL12-XX-YYYY

Where:

RFL12 stands for Regional Fisheries Laboratory

XX stands for the last two digits of the current year

YYY stands for the sample number in chronological number as received. The number starts each year from the beginning.

All necessary information are recorded in the Receiving and Releasing Logbook, LR 06-01.

2.4. Customers who submit samples not meeting the laboratory requirements should sign the LF 06-07, Sample Waiver Form.

2.5. LF 06-03, Order of Payment will be issued containing the description of testing service, laboratory code and its respective price. The official receipt number is recorded.

2.6. A copy of the LF 06-02, Request for Laboratory Analysis Form (RLA) is given to the customer and it will serve as a proof of claiming the report of test along with the official receipt.

2.7. Should any changed be needed, it should be communicated to all affected staff.

2.8. Customer has to be informed of any deviation from the contract through e-mail (LF 06-02, Request of Laboratory Analysis, LF 00-06, Transmittal Sheet) which will be written in the remarks section of LF 06-02, Request for Laboratory Analysis Form.

2.9. BFAR RFL XII provides the right to all customers to be present during the analysis of the sample submitted but only at a designated area of the laboratory, subject to approval. (Refer to SOP-02, Facilities and Environmental Conditions for designated area for witnessing)

3. Laboratory Capability and Resources to Meet the Customer's Requirements

3.1. The laboratory provides the List of Analyses, Subcontractors and Fees (LF 06-01) and laboratory flyers to customers inquiring regarding laboratory services.

3.2. Laboratory ensures that it has the capability and resources to meet the customer's requirements within its scope of activities. Ensuring the capability and resources of the laboratory is done through inventory of supplies, glassware and reagents, calibration of equipment, proficiency testing and following succession plan.
