3.2. The folders of the records are maintained by the designated staff of the laboratory. All records are kept by the Quality Assurance Manager in the office, the other records on laboratory level are kept in respective analytical laboratory by the responsible laboratory staff.

4. Electronic Records

- 4.1 The organization of electronic records of the Quality Management System is the responsibility of the Quality Assurance Manager, who defines the most appropriate structure for electronic filing of these records.
- 4.2 Electronic records and data files are backed up once a year with password protection to safeguard against the loss of information due to equipment malfunctions or human error.
- 4.3 External hard drive used to contain the record should be labeled appropriately to facilitate accurate filing and retrieval of electronic records.
- 4.4 The analyst may use electronically entered raw data and observation with back up drive and hard copy printed form.

5. Organization of Records

- 5.1. The Documents of Quality Manual, SOPs, WIs and Laboratory Procedures are maintained according to;
 1. Document Distribution List, LF 13-01
 2. List of Withdrawn Documents, LF 13-02
 3. Form Distribution List, LF 14-01

The above list indicates who is responsible for maintaining the type of record (electronic and/or written form) and place of maintenance.

- 5.2. The maintenance of the records of completed forms in each laboratory is organized by the use of the list of records for each laboratory.
- 5.3. All records are maintained based on the List of Records, LF 14 – 02. After this period, obsolete records are disposed based on the List of Records, LF 14 – 02 or National Archives of the Philippines under the responsibility of the Quality Assurance Manager.
